Mr. Abraham Manley
71 Crawford St
Newark, N. J.

Dear Mr. Manley:

I have just finished talking with Mrs. Manley over long distance telephone and must say that I feel that that she is not yet solidly satisfied with my having booked The Newark Eagles as per our understanding in Chicago last week. She seems to think that we can change dates to suit the conveniences of the teams booked, etc. and she doesn't seem any too serious about forwarding the check as per our mutual understanding, etc.

You should know now that the Briggs Stadium booking is absolutely in my hands and that the authorities have given me the authority to do as I think best. I have always lived up to their expectations and will remain in charge as long as I do to suit them. I thought I was doing you a good service by booking your team in preference to several others when I could have done otherwise with people who would have lived up to agreements with promptness and satisfaction. I will always expect you to keep your promises to me after they are made, consequently I will expect your check at once as per the understanding. If you are not satisfied with the deal it is absolutely o. k. Just let me know at once and I can fill the date o. k. without hard feelings.

their

Very truly yours,

John R. Williams
